After which will be produced the Drury Lane New Grand Comic Christmas Annual, illustrating (for the first time on this stage) the most popular of Eastern Legends, with unprecedented regard to strict accuracy of Oriental manners and customs, and entitled HARLEQUIN and

THE FORTY THIEVES

"Once upon a time there lived in Bagdad Two Brothers, one of whom was called Cassim, and the other Ali Baba. Their father had left them moderate fortunes, which they divided equally between them. It might be therefore naturally conjectured that their riches would be the same; chance, however, ordered it otherwise."—The Story.

The Scenery and Effects, entirely new, by WILLIAM BEVERLY, whose personal services are entirely devoted to illustrating the productions of this Theatre, assisted by Messrs. ROBSON, CUTHBERT, YALNOLD, WARD, KEITH, &c. The Music, largely derived from Ancient Oriental Sources, with modern Music Hall Melodies, by permission of the Publishers, Messrs. HOPWOOD and CREW, H. DAVISON, &c., arranged and composed by KARL MEYDER. The Eastern Costumes by Mr VOKES and Mrs LAWLER, from designs by Mr ALFRED MALTBY. The Properties, Tricks, Changes and Transformations by Mr A. J. BRADWELL and Assistants. The Machinery by Mr J. TUCKER. The Gas Illuminations by Mr S. HINKLEY. The Scenes in the Harlequinade by Messrs. CHARLES LAURI, F. EVANS and A. J. BRADWELL. The Story, faithfully translated from the original Arabic Manuscript, by E. L. BLANCHARD, author of the Drury Lane Annuals successively produced here for Twenty-Seven years.

The Ballets and Processions arranged and Pantomime produced by Mr JOHN CORMACK, under the personal supervision of the AUTHOR and F. B. CHATTERTON.

EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately-flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
